

Mr. Wacker is an author, futurist and lecturer. He spoke about the tremendous changes in our society, which he believes are systemic and not cyclical. He compared it to the Renaissance when the invention of the printing press changed the world forever. After his very thought provoking presentation he took questions from the audience.